Editor's Letter

Dear Everyone,

Thank you to all those who have sent articles and letters for printing in this month's newsletter.

At the time of writing, it is snowing quite heavily and freezing cold. Our grandsons texted, full of glee, that their school in York, is closed today. Our Norwegian daughter in law is sending pictures of their toddlers playing happily in the snow; she must be feeling as if she is back in her homeland, rather than York!

Of course those who need to venture out, must be feeling quite anxious, so for them, I hope that it soon clears.

Of course, deliveries of the newsletter may well be delayed!

You can read about the village hall committee meeting on page 5 and the AGM on page 7. We desperately need more volunteers, if activities are to continue. Many village halls in various places are closing, through lack of support. We do not want this to happen in Rudston.

Speaking of the Village Hall, don't forget to buy your tickets for the play "Talking Heads" on April 14th.

Once again, we have a mystery in the village. It began last February, when several ladies of the village discovered a single red rose on their doorstep, on Valentine's Day. The sender of the flowers has become somewhat of an enigma, as it has happened again. No one seems to have any idea of the identity of the mystery deliverer. Who can it be?

None the less, this kind and generous act has made many ladies very happy.

Sue Tompkin

to Anne, John and Vera, who have recently moved into Applecross. We hope that you enjoy living in our village.

Dear Friends,

Have you ever been homeless? Have you ever been without a place to call your own? I never have, I have been blessed by having a place to call my home all through my life. Some, not so great but nevertheless I had a roof over my head.

At Christmas we read about Jesus being a refugee, about his time in Egypt which was not his home, then about moving from place to place, sometimes his choice and sometimes not. Of course, we are not oblivious to the fact there are homeless people in just about every city and town in our country and thankfully, there are many good folks who give of their time, talents and money to help this particular group of people.

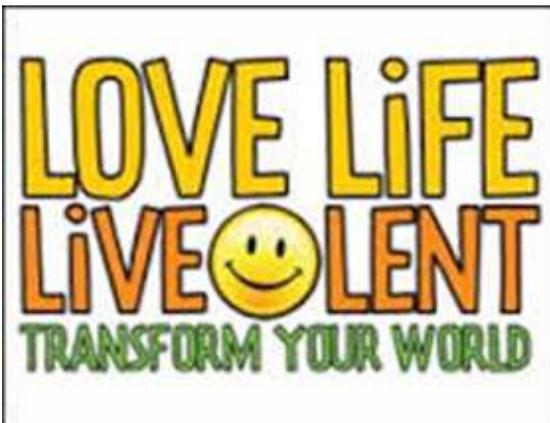

Where is all this leading, we know all about this, I hear you saying. Well, maybe so but I wonder how many of you have heard of GREEN PASTURES - a national Christian social enterprise that provides homes for the homeless and those in most need. I recently attended our local Deanery meeting in Bridlington with an unusually large attendance of over fifty.

Wow, I hear you saying, yes, it was indeed a 'wow' meeting because we shared a presentation by 'Pastor Pete' Cunningham, founding member of Green Pastures and Carl Good, a member of the team. What they had to say seemed very much to fit with our remit as a Deanery to engage with the Diocesan objectives of reaching those we currently don't, those in poverty and the 20-40 year olds. We saw a presentation on how churches or groups of churches can enter into partnerships with Green Pastures to provide homes for the homeless, how those houses are funded through investment, purchased, administered etc. He also added that partners would need people able to administer, offer pastoral care and carry out maintenance work. So, please consider how you may help and contact me or Glyn for further information. Above all, pray, for the work of Green Pastures.

I am strongly reminded of Jesus' command to 'Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.'(Gal 6 :2)

Love & blessings, Revd Barbara

Council News

The next Parish Council Meeting is to be held on March 28th.

7.30pm in the Village Hall

Village Hall Committee Meeting

Members of the village hall committee met on February 20th. The chair, Shirley, welcomed everyone .

Fund raising was discussed, with Teresa and her team being thanked for all their hard work, in particular at the party.

The treasurer, Nick, reported that the finances for the year are very healthy and a discussion took place as to how money could be spent to improve the hall.

It was decided to buy a shed for the toddler equipment. The forthcoming professional play, "Talking Heads" by Alan Bennett on April 14th was discussed, with volunteers saying which jobs they would do.

It is hoped that many tickets will be sold. They are only £5, as it was felt that the finances could afford to do this for the village. There are some unused table tennis tables, so before we sell them all it was decided to ask the villagers if anyone was interested in joining a club, (See details below).

Teresa is looking into the possibility of organising a Murder Mystery Evening. Also a "Royal Wedding" party was discussed.

The Post Office situation was discussed (see page  for details of the outreach service failure)

The date for the AGM was fixed for Tuesday April 24th. It is hoped to encourage more people onto the committee.

Letters to the Editor

Hello,
My early years,
I grew up in Rudston We moved from there when I was 7 years old in 1962. My dad was Tommy Mansfield and we lived on Long Street. I used to sit on the bench around the sign post for hours talking to the older men. I remember the corner shop and the path leading up to the school house and church. Are there any people still living there that went to school around 1959 that might remember us?

Many thanks to the kind and thoughtful person (or persons) who sent ladies in the village a lovely Valentine's rose to brighten their day. It is very much appreciated.
Pauline

I would like to thank our mystery valentine for the lovely rose. It is such a nice thought.
Thank you. Kathy Rawlings

At our February meeting Prof Dominic Powesland gave a fascinating presentation on the People of the Vale of Pickering, concentrating on the period around 500 to 800AD. We heard how geophysical research can detect historical features, and sheep walkways have been found which could show that the area was the base for the Wolds sheep system. Prof Powesland's presentation, illustrated with pictures, maps and diagrams, was largely based on research he has done in the last 20 years on the Sherburn – Heslerton area.

We would like to thank everyone who helped in any way with the Snowdrop & Aconite walk at Thorpe Hall. The weather this year was much more favourable and the small Spring flowers were at their best .About 300 people came to the event and £2176 was made for Church funds. We are extremely grateful to Somerled and Charlotte Macdonald for allowing us to wander through the grounds at Thorpe Hall and enjoy the amazing display of Snowdrops and Aconites. For some it was a first visit but for many it was their annual visit and they especially enjoy the freshly baked home made cakes ,buns and William's flapjack and chocolate brownies.

Our next event is a Spring Lunch at Low Caythorpe. £10 for 2 courses and coffee on Friday 16th March There are still places left at both the 12 noon sitting & the 1.30 sitting so please phone June if you want to book a place on 01262 420237. June Sellers (Social secretary to Rudston P.C.C.)

from Mike Sellers -your village rep.

Unfortunately we had to cancel the February meeting due to snowy weather and roads. The next meeting is on Tuesday 6th March when Rick Hudson will talk about Danes Dyke House at 7 p.m in Rudston Village Hall . New members and guests welcome. Hazel Conner will be in the chair and hostesses are Betty Wells, Mary Jackson & Edna Robson. The competition is an old spoon .

A Concise History of our Village outreach Post Office.

Contrary to what I wrote in my editorial in the last newsletter, I am sorry to say that we still do not have a Post Office outreach service, despite the efforts of Shirley and members of the village hall committee, together with Councillor Jane Everson. It is interesting to note that the Post Office Banking Services Director recently claimed, in the Daily Telegraph, that 99% of individual customers can do their banking through the Post Office. We can't even buy a stamp from the outreach post office service. Actually, to use the word "service" is a complete misnomer, as it is anything but.

For many weeks, the service was spasmodic, at best and on many occasions staff have been unhelpful, disagreeable and uncivil. Eventually, when threats of media involvement were issued, it was decided that it was an equipment failure, causing the lack of service. This would be unacceptable if it was a village shop, but for a national organisation to allow this level of incompetence, somewhat beggars belief.

Copious amounts of individuals, purporting to be engineers inspected the equipment and eventually it was fixed!....strangely enough.... just as the reporter from Calendar News arrived to do a piece about the trials and tribulations of the Rudston Post Office Outreach Service.....or so we thought.

There was much rejoicing, as the news of this awe and wonder spread across the village. (We country bumpkins are easily pleased).

Sadly the marvel was short lived, as the following week, the full service once again could not be accessed.

We have alerted the Post Office personnel to the perceived dereliction of duty to the Rudston community.

The” powers that be” continually bang on about sustainability of village life. HA HA HA

We will keep you informed.

On line Newsletter

I expect many of our readers look at the colour version of the newsletter on line.

If this means that you do not need a paper copy, please can you email me, with your address.

We are very grateful to the monthly sponsors, but printing costs are continually escalating and of course there are those who relentlessly trudge around the village with deliveries!

Naturally, we will continue to print and deliver the newsletter, but it was just a thought, that in this “paperless society” some residents may wish to contribute to this.
