Editor's Letter

I hope you are all enjoying the lovely autumn weather, accompanied by the beautiful changing colours of the trees and hedges. Those of you who read the last issue would have read the rather dramatic close to my letter. Thank you to everyone who sent their good wishes and get well thoughts following my stay in Hull Royal and Castle Hill hospitals. I dislocated my hip and also fractured some bones, necessitating a two week stay in hospital. It has NOT been a hip replacement... too young apparently!! There has to be no weight bearing on my right side for 6 weeks, so I hop around using a zimmer frame; this caused our youngest grandson to say, "you look like a rabbit, Gran". Car riding is out, because of risk of damage, getting in and out. Another grandson asked if I was really bored, sitting in the same chair or lying in bed in the lounge, to which I replied that I am quite happy with my kindle, my iPad, and the Daily Telegraph. Perhaps I was born to be absolutely bone idle!! Seriously though, I am lucky to have Nick who is looking after me so well and family who are regular visitors. Nick has made a ramp and wheels me out in a wheel chair, kindly leant by Albert our neighbour. On one such outing we had a ceremonial burning of the beautiful blue shoes which were, due to their extremely smooth soles, responsible for my fall. I am ashamed to say that I do make quite a fuss as I'm frightened of falling out of it. I have been assured that this won't happen and am not a cartoon character. We have practiced going to the village hall, so that I can attend the committee meeting this week. My hospital stay ensured that we have missed out on lots of events.....a wedding, trip to the races and a 3 week holiday to Lanzarote which we had booked the day before my accident. I was really upset to have missed my first Parish Council meeting, but I will be at the next, in or out of a wheel chair! I have an X-ray booked for next Friday and hope that at least I will be permitted to stand on two feet.

I would just like to say that whilst I have encountered a very small number of NHS staff who are a disgrace to the profession, the majority of staff are wonderful; completely dedicated often working in short staffed and difficult circumstances.

Sorry that this has been all about me, but due to my present position I have not been around to make any observations. Welcome to any newcomers to our village. We all hope that you will settle in well and enjoy all that Rudston has to offer.

18 th	9.30am	Holy Communion + Trailblazers

There is a service of Holy Communion each Wednesday Morning at 10.30am followed by coffee.

Our Harvest Festival is on Thursday 1st October at 6.30pm. This will be followed by supper in the Village Hall.

Dear Friends,

Summer is ended and autumn is well and truly in the air. Autumn brings with it a change in the church calendar. We have our Harvest Festival and supper which is always a meaningful evening for a farming community like ours. When all is safely gathered in and the Harvest festivals are done we have another few events to keep us going.

The Rudston Heritage History Group has restarted at the Village Hall after the summer break and the next meeting is October 29th when Tim Schadla-Hall will be talking about, 'after the ice and before the farmers'. Many thanks to John and Val who do a superb job organizing the group. Check our website for the full programme: <http://rudstonheritage.org.uk/web/>

Also you may be interested to know we are starting a 'Pilgrim course' at the home of Rob Gobel, Chantry Meadows, Kilham. If you want to know more visit the website which has loads of information: <http://www.pilgrimcourse.org>

In a nutshell it is for those who want a chance to think about the Christian faith, those who have recently started coming to church and those who have been Christians for many years and want to visit the roots of their faith again. It starts at the very beginning and assumes very little understanding or knowledge of the Christian faith. It will be an informal time and all are truly welcome. It will run weekly for 6 weeks starting at 2pm on Wednesday 28th October. Keep an eye on the church notice board for more details and get in touch with me if you think it might be for you.

With every blessing, Glyn

Christmas is fast approaching and it is shoebox time again!

A leaflet will be making it's way to your door soon. Each and every box makes a huge difference to a child and your continued support is greatly appreciated.

It was also suggested that some people might like to donate a few items rather than doing a whole shoebox. To this end there is now a 'drop box' in the village hall. If you would like to donate any item listed in the leaflet then please leave them in the Christmas box at the coffee shop kiosk on a Thursday.

The boxes are collected mid-November. Please drop them off to Adele at Bramble House on Eastgate (420 555).

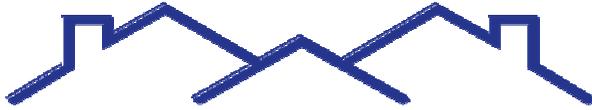

Many, many thanks again for any support you can give to this fantastic appeal!

Many thanks to everyone who came and supported the Coffee Morning.

A total of £450 was raised, and I'm very grateful to all the helpers, to those who provided raffle prizes and goods for the stall, and served refreshments etc. Thanks again to you all.

Kilham Church of England Primary School

(Mr S England 01262 420214)

"From the school"

Here at school we have been back for 2 weeks (at the time of writing) and our new school year has started really well.

After saying goodbye to 15 children in July who were moving onto secondary school, we have welcomed a total of 18 full-time new-starters, as well as another new group of children into nursery. Everybody is getting used to new classrooms and new teachers and everyone is making new friends.

We officially welcomed our new starters with what is now our traditional September Church service, when our oldest children shared their 'Recipe for a Happy School', our Year 4 & 5 pupils shared their thoughts on changes that had happened since they were new starters themselves, and a blessing was shared by Rev. Owen.

Our oldest children (Year 6) have had an incredibly busy September. They have been preparing for a Macmillan coffee afternoon which they will have run themselves in September, and were also chosen by the BBC to be involved in a cookery programme to be shown near Christmas – an exciting day's filming took place! The children got to see how sprouts were grown, picked and packed, and then got to try out a variety of tasty recipes in a farmhouse kitchen!

We are now preparing for our Harvest Service, where we will give thanks for the harvest and aim to make contributions to the Driffield Food Bank and a global cause.

There are already several activities planned for this autumn term to look forward to:

Gardening Corner

At the time of writing these few notes, we have the back end feeling, still a bit of harvest to get in, but by now it should be just about all over and seed time for some crops.

Spring cabbage plants can be planted in the final quarters, with the usual protection given to keep wood pigeons off.

It's time to planting any deciduous trees or shrubs, in particular fruit trees. There are so many varieties of both cooking and dessert. I have tested many of them over the years to find those best suited to our soil and climate. There are naturally new varieties popping up all the time to consider, but my experience does not include these. I tend to go for the older well tried ones.

Apples must come first, for my apple pies the old Early Victoria is number one, followed closely by Lord Derby and to follow, who could miss out the world famous Bramley Seedling for keeping and cooking. However this must have other varieties near in order to pollinate it's flowers, Howgate Wonder is the best for this as it doesn't make such a big tree.

For dessert apples I planted Ellison's Orange for the first fruits, then Laxton's Fortune, and the famous Cox's Orange Pippin (in a sheltered place), but for a pale dessert our own Yorkshire variety Ribston Pippin is the best, with the all rounder Blenheim Orange a good second choice.

Modern trees are sold on more dwarfing root stocks and the labels should give the rootstock and it's vigour as well as it's variety name.

More next month... beware we have reached the time of year when a ground frost can occur!

Crosslands Column

Things got a little mixed up last month. Though that was quite understandable and is certainly no criticism of the editor (and husband!) who should be congratulated for producing the usual comprehensive newsletter in adverse circumstances. The two articles contained in this column were intended to be separate, and one of them was nothing to do with the parish council of course. Though there has been a response to that – thank you. What happened with the dog fouling one was that our warden Mr. Chris Shanks had been given the same article for the village at the meeting he had attended. Quite rightly that was the one which was printed, without any Clerk's comments.

As far as we know, the county council are going ahead with their Green Open Homes idea, but as some would notice it was being compromised even before it appeared in print. The government withdrawal of subsidies on solar panels must make them less attractive at least.

Another government decision from a while ago is just starting to take effect at parish council level. Not the misleading “more power” spiel, but the “more transparency” one. It entails more parish council information, especially financial, being posted on websites. Rudston already meets some of the requirements, but others are needed. An immediate change is that I am now required to publish the full agenda which members receive before meetings. So a few days (“3 clear”) before the next meeting which is on 14th October that should appear on the website. Copies also have to go on notice boards, so apologies in advance if these inevitably larger pieces of paper temporarily cover up other notices. There will no longer be need for the basic meeting notice which used to appear 7 days beforehand. Accounts changes are taking place a little more gradually, but one thing that already happens is the listing of payments and receipts in the Minutes of each meeting.

Meanwhile, the auditor's return for the last annual accounts has been received back with a "clean bill of health". It is available for viewing at the home of the chairman by appointment until 9th October.

Finally – buses. It will probably be no surprise that the Acklams bus service is proving uneconomical, but that contract continues until next February. However, East Riding Council wish to keep some sort of service going after that and have already produced a proposed new timetable. For Rudston (and the other villages concerned) this would provide a chance for shopping, in Bridlington on Wednesdays and Driffield on Thursdays. The Saturday service would be discontinued. Proposed timings are: Wednesday, dep. Rudston 10 a.m., arr. Brid. 10.20, return 1 p.m. arr. 1.20; and Thursday, dep. Rudston 9.35 a.m., arr. Driffield 10.15, return 1 p.m., arr. 1.40. (There are a number of other villages to take in with that one). The Bridlington service will no longer start in Driffield, but (for some strange reason) Ruston Parva. The parish council will need to make any response on this soon after the next meeting, so if anyone has any comments please contact any member before then. (Or even come along to the meeting of course!)

(Please note that any opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily those of the Parish Council)

I have just heard from ERYC that they are removing our Cans/Plastic and Paper recycling bins - one on Monday (talk about short notice!) and the other on 12th October. All due to "low usage" .
