Hello and welcome to this month's Newsletter.

I have been informed, by a very reliable source, that my assumption concerning the reasons behind the new 30 mph speed limit from Low Caythorpe to Binsdale was incorrect. It was put there because of the laying of the water pipe, and has nothing to do with Centrica, the gas storage people, though I am sure that those entering and leaving the site will benefit from it being in place.

It seems that not too many people are observing the new limit, but beware. After new restrictions have been put in place, it is not unusual for speed cameras to be put to use shortly after so as to monitor if they are being adhered to. Just to remind you - in most cases, if you are caught doing more than twice the speed limit, it is an instant disqualification. Along with that, you can get up to a 50% loading on your insurance policy - motor insurers don't like speeders.

Further to the above, Philip Crossland points out that the speed limit is only temporary and 'advisory' - I would not like to risk my licence by breaking the limit.

The more observant of you may have noticed that the Rudston Newsletter website has been out of commission for some time. But, our world-wide presence is making a bit of a comeback of sorts. It's in its early stages at the moment, and can be found at www.rudston.org.uk the parish council's website, provided by ERYC. At the moment, it just has links to this year's Newsletters, but it is planned that more information will be added soon. Neil Watson is looking after the site, and you can contact him by email at neiljw51@gmail.com if there is any thing you wish to be included. The site can be used for promoting Village events, clubs, and local businesses etc.

The painting shown on the front cover is by artist, Estella Brown, and is aptly titled Rudston Church. It is reproduced here by kind permission of the artist. The painting is available to view, and purchase at Gallery 49, 49 Market Place, Bridlington

Hello Everyone

My name is Elly and I am a tri-coloured Jack Russell Terrier. I am 15 months old and live with the man called Roy and the woman called Jacky. They named me Elly because it was their Golden Wedding and they said the Roman numeral for 50 was “L” so I think I am a “Golden Girl”.

I was born in Rudston and my mother and a brother and sister still live in the village. My brother is called Pig and my sister is called Echo and I often see them out and about. I have settled in at Hill View very nicely and hardly ever put a foot wrong except for occasionally when I eat too much and become ill. The woman clears up after me and does not complain but the man sits me down and tells me I am greedy. He obviously has no idea that I am descended from Wolves, and they eat anything!

I have made a best friend next door. He is called “Bingo”. He is quite a bit older than me but very wise and is happy to spend hours playing with me in the garden. We have really good fun indulging in lots of pointless running, jumping and barking. I often help him out with his guard duties if we see anyone strange approaching and in return he lets me rummage in his toy box and “borrow” things to bring home. However, I have learnt one valuable lesson – NEVER leave your half eaten dog chews, pigs ears or bones on the grass. You turn your back for 5 minutes and they’ve disappeared. He’s not called “Bingo” for nothing!!

I can often be seen strolling to the paper shop with the man and we meet many other dogs on the way. This involves lots of bottom sniffing and tail wagging and can be quite exhausting with a 10-minute walk turning into a 60-minute trek.

The woman often plays ball with me in the garden but she can’t throw very well and I heard the man say she was useless. This must have been a bad word because she told him he was no good at domestic chores unless it involved eating. Quite clearly the man is also descended from wolves because he loves food nearly as much as me – only his always smells better!

The man and woman went on something called a “holiday” earlier this year and another new word was mentioned – “Kennels”. I didn’t know what this was and Bingo wasn’t sure but thought it was where you got sent if you didn’t have special people to look after you. Bingo has a lady called Judith. The man was talking to one of his friends called Dave and he said he would love to have me to stay so I spent a delightful 2 weeks with Dave and Joyce and did not even realise my man and woman were missing (until they got home again!).

Dave took my photograph and it was so good that he made a bigger one for the man who went out and had it framed. It now hangs on the dining room wall to be admired by all visitors. I am most proud of it.

The man took me to the beach last week and I had such fun running in all directions that the man became dizzy watching me. I discovered a new talent for digging holes in the sand but realised this takes lots of effort and you soon get tired so the man took me home again. I had a nap in my basket to restore my energy levels for later. The woman said she thinks my special dog food keeps me fit and full of beans and thinks she may have to try some herself!!

I must go now as Bingo has come round to play and needs my help. I will write again in a few months. Lots of Licks and Barks, Elly xx

Changes to ISAs

In a couple of weeks time, 6th October 2009, the annual ISA (Individual Savings Account) allowance will increase from £7,200 to £10,200 for anyone aged 50 or over in this tax year. This increased allowance extends to anyone over 18 from 6th April 2010.

Together with changes made from 6th April 2008, this now means that you are able to shelter more of your money from the Tax Man, which has to be a good thing.

For those with existing ISAs it is worth noting that you may transfer your ISA investments from one provider to another or from Cash into Stocks & Shares. This may be achieved whilst retaining the advantageous Tax Efficient Wrapper. In fact, it is vital to review ISA investments regularly. There is a significant difference between top performing investment funds and those that perform less well and in many cases investors are able to make their hard earned capital work harder for them by effecting a transfer from one provider to another, thus ensuring that they achieve the best possible returns.

For those with Cash ISA investments, now is an excellent time to re-assess the suitability of Cash. Interest rates remain historically low, meaning that the returns achievable on cash investments are also relatively poor. Transferring Cash to Stocks and Shares is not for everyone and should only be undertaken once the risks are understood, however, stocks and shares over the longer term provide the potential to provide higher growth and/or a greater yield. It must be remembered, however, that the value of investments in stocks and shares (whether via an ISA or not) can fall as well as rise and is not guaranteed.

Transferring your Cash ISA to Stocks and Shares is easy, usually involving no more than filling in a form, sending it to your chosen provider and allowing them to do the rest. Due to the bewildering array of investment funds available it may be beneficial to seek the advice of an Independent Financial Adviser, who will not only be able to help you choose a suitable fund, matched to your attitude to risk, but will take care of the paperwork for you.

ISAs are one of the most important vehicles available to help you shelter your investments from the tax man. Make sure you maximise your ISA investments every Tax Year.

ALL SAINTS CHURCH, RUDSTON, SOCIAL COMMITTEE.

First of all a great big THANK YOU to anyone who helped in any way or supported the 'Stitches and Stems' exhibition in Church in September. We were all very pleased with the way Church looked during the exhibition and some people came more than once to enjoy it. We are very grateful to Joan Drake who loaned her beautiful quilts which were much admired by our visitors, along with quilts, stitch work and floral arrangements by friends from our village and other places. We were also treated to organ recitals, so thanks to the organists. Over 500 people visited the exhibition and we made a profit of £2,540 for Church funds which will help towards paying the Parish Share of £10,000. So once again, thank you to everyone, too numerous to mention individually, and also to those who sent donations even though they were unable to come.

We now look forward to HARVEST FESTIVAL on FRIDAY 2nd OCTOBER, followed by a HARVEST SUPPER in the Village Hall. Tickets are £3.50 each from Jean Corner. Please try to get them in advance so that we can set the correct number of places and cater without wastage. It is always a very friendly atmosphere and a lovely end to Harvest and everyone is welcome to come.

I am about to formulate new rotas for Cleaning, Welcomers and Coffee Makers, and for Flowers in Church, so this is the best time to say thank you to all those who helped last year and took their responsibilities seriously, enabling everything to run so smoothly in Church.

The Visitors Book always has many positive comments about how we look after the Church and as always, many people are to be congratulated on this. If any one would like to take a turn at cleaning, making coffee or doing flowers for 2 weeks please let me know and I can add your name to the rota. Many hands make light work!

YOUTH CLUB NEWS

Welcome back to all members. Our Youth Club Street Dancers had fun competing in Rudstock at the Bosville Arms in the holidays; they managed to get through to the second round of judging, which was great. They also performed at the Fun Day held at the Village Hall. Well done to all who took part and thank you to Keely, the dance teacher, and Sarah Binns and Tony Hughes for organising things.

We held a BBQ on Friday 19th July for youth club members and their families. This was well attended and I think everyone had a good time. The presentation for the Rebecca Richardson Star Member of the year trophy also took place. This was voted on by the young people and won by Bethany Hughes, who has given a great deal of time and tremendous commitment to the club, by assisting in the tuck shop, jointly chairing our management meetings, arranging consultations with the members and helping out with fund raising events. Bethany is a credit to the club and an excellent role model to the members. Well Done Beth, and thank you to Rebecca's parents for their donation to make this possible and also to Ian Keane for the engraving.

We reopened on Friday 11th September, with yet another BBQ to use up excess burgers etc. All ages are now back together and the club is open 6.30 pm. till 8.30 pm. Fiona will still be leading the club, however, she will be less involved in the sessions, as time is needed to catch up with paperwork in order to keep the club running to its professional standards, meeting all government requirements. Paul Lister and Andrea Dennison have kindly volunteered to take over the general running of the evening sessions with our usual teams of volunteers. We'd like to welcome Sophie Bramham and Claire Stephenson to the team, who are currently undergoing their induction process. Also to Ben Cowton who has kindly offered to deliver some sports coaching.

There will be no youth club Friday 2nd October, due to the Harvest Supper taking place in the hall and some of our members who attended the summer club having a trip to Hull Ice Arena.

We will be having a Halloween party Friday 23rd October, where members can have a go at carving a pumpkin, play games and have a fancy dress competition. There will also be a ghost walk around the village for the older, braver members (not suitable for the young or faint hearted!).

We have been successful in achieving £100 from the East Riding of Yorkshire Council Community Education Grant. This is a contribution towards the hire of the Village Hall to hold some type of weekly social events for anyone between the age of 14 -19. Consultations are in process to find out what these young people would like. Any one with any ideas can contact Fiona Turner, Tony Hughes or Anna Cowton.

RUDSTON VILLAGE HALL

The Village Hall Committee would like to thank everyone who supported the Village Fun Day. A good time was had by all who attended. The weather was very kind to us and we were able to stay outside until early evening.

Pinky Ellis gave an excellent performance, which everyone enjoyed.

The Youth Club Break Dancers were superb. Although some of their members were on holiday and unable to attend, the rest of the dancers gave their all and were a joy to watch, well done to you all. We hope you will perform for us again in the future.

There are still some beefburgers and sausages left, if anyone would like to purchase some please contact Doreen Turner 420668.

When the rest of the food is sold the profit will be approx £100. Although this is not a vast amount, the aim of the day was for the enjoyment of the village and as all who came along enjoyed themselves, we consider this a satisfying success.

The next Village Hall event is on Thursday 3rd December when Robert Child will entertain us with a film show entitled "India Land Of A Billion Portraits." Robert is an excellent photographer as those who came to his last film show will be aware, so please try to come along and support us on this evening.

There will be more details in the next newsletter.

Banter from the Bosville

Well here we go again, weather has been quite good so can't complain about that, have been given a trophy for being a runner up in the summer pool league so can't complain about that either, and now I have to thank all those people who turned up to my birthday party with the biggest birthday card I have seen. Things are just going too well, something has to happen that I can complain about, "Victor" is just waiting to come out of his box.

Oh yes I almost forgot, went to the church to see all the stitch work and flowers, congratulations to all those talented people who produced such wonderful work.

Our new Chef has come up with some great dishes, so pop in to the Bosville and have a look at the Chef's "Bored", trust me he has come up with a great menu. Our Christmas menu is also ready for your inspection and it's absolutely fabulous, so forget the washing up at Christmas and come and book your place at the Bosville.

Nature News

Migration has this year so far been confined to a few early returning waders being seen along the banks of the Gypsy Race. A few more green sandpipers have appeared, along with common sandpipers and a few badly named grey wagtails--- these have yellow underparts. There have, however, been reports of quail seen both from the margins of harvested fields and dashing across roads. All the owl species are noisy at present, establishing territories and advertising for future mates. Barn owls are to be seen regularly patrolling the area, herons are raiding local fish ponds and the kingfisher is to be seen visiting local ponds, since there is no water for much of the length of the village in the watercourse. Swallows and house martins are still here, with some of the swallows yet to fledge their final broods but all give the impression of the end of summer. Just out of the area, there are reports of both honey buzzard and red kite.

Dragonflies seem to be quite numerous this year with southern hawkler being recorded for the first time locally, along with migrant hawkler and common darter. Blue-tailed damselfly has also been seen on a number of occasions.

During late summer there has been a large increase in the number of both butterflies and moths, with sightings of all our common butterflies, plus speckled wood, comma and small copper. No new moths have been added to the local list but there are records of hummingbird hawk moths and a convolvulus hawk moth in the last few days.

During the sparse showers of rain, frogs have been making their way back into their wintering grounds in ditches and the bottom of hedgerows, whilst in the sunshine, bees and hoverflies have been numerous, together with the seasonal increase in crane flies (daddy long legs). There have also been reports of many wasp nests, suggesting that these seasonal nuisances have had a productive breeding year.

From the Vicarage

We are now well into the time where in our churches and schools we celebrate God's provision of food and thank him at our Harvest festivals and Harvest suppers. This isn't a good time of year to diet. Over these last two years I've found out how good and important Harvest get togethers are in this area, and that suits me because I do like eating. But what makes a meal so tasty? Think about your favourite meal. Fish might be nice and chips might be nice but put them together, add the salt and vinegar and bingo! The secret to the tastiest meal is to have the right combination of ingredients.

I suppose we could say the same for our lives really. What makes a person truly happy? If there was a recipe for life, what would the ingredients be? If we had to work or go to school all the time, we would become exhausted; if we just watched television, we'd become unfit. We need all the right ingredients, a little bit of work, a dash of school, a teaspoonful of television, a sprinkling of exercise, and a generous measure of time spent with our family and our friends. But if you want life to be extra special, there is an essential ingredient that you must always include and that's God.

Human beings are more than flesh and blood, we are spirit too. Across time and across all cultures people know that. This Harvest we will be feeding not just the stomach but the spirit too, through our readings, songs, prayers and actions.

A good harvest reading, and food related one, is in Matthew's gospel. 'The Kingdom of Heaven is like this. A woman takes some yeast and mixes it with forty litres of flour until the whole batch of dough rises.' Now I've learned a thing or two about bread making. Bread dough contains several ingredients; flour, salt, sugar and water, but yeast is the special extra ingredient that makes the bread rise and become fluffy and tasty. Without yeast, bread is tasteless and flat. The Bible says that God is like the yeast. He is the special ingredient that completes the recipe of life. Our faith might be a gentle hidden yeast slowly rising, or it might be a great blooming and bubbling yeast, that's for each of us to work out, but whatever our faith, may we all be fed by God this Harvest.

Crosslands Column

We may have been a little hasty in criticising the Streetscene gang. It was learned later that they had already decided that some of the work required was beyond them, and they had forwarded a request for more extensive work to be undertaken by the roads department. As a result, we have now been notified that all "internal" roads in the village (i.e: not Long Street, Kilham Road, Burton Agnes Road or the main road) will be completely re-surfaced next year. Although we had heard January, it is to be hoped it will be a little later, after the bad weather. (If my bumper blackberry crop is anything to go by we shall get some!). Meanwhile, Streetscene should be returning to correct other minor matters. They do seem to have made a good job of Long Street footpath though, which has been duly acknowledged.

At the time of writing, we still await the return of our paper recycling bin. I think we are going to have to look into the possibility of claiming for lost revenue.

Having mentioned the long distance Water pipeline earlier this year, I should report the follow-up having attended a "presentation" (as one of only two people, with three presenters in one of the nice new rooms at the Spa!). Work has already commenced, which probably accounts for the lack of interest. The pipeline is passing the other side of the gas storage site and over near High Caythorpe, so doesn't directly affect the village. If it hasn't already crossed the main road by now, they will only dig up half the road at a time to minimise disruption to traffic.

Incidentally, the 30 mph signs along that section of road are not permanent. They appear to be "advisory" simply to make motorists aware of increased activity at the gas storage site entrance and a possibility of having to slow down. (Something that most of us are alert to all the time, of course).

Now, in the national interest (ahem!), I am to bring to your attention "Flu Friends". Yes I know - whatever next! Anyway, as you will be aware the government and health authorities are expecting a resurgence of Swine Flu this autumn, and the idea is that everyone nominates a couple of friends or neighbours who would then look after you if you caught it. In that case you would not be able to leave the house for a few days, so would have to depend on others to obtain your medication etc. If you think you've caught this flu, you report it over the telephone "hotline" rather than call your own doctor. You are then advised on anti-viral medication and where it can be collected. There is a national Flu Helpline: 0800 1513513, N.H.S. Direct on: 0845 4647, or Dept. of Health website: www.dh.gov.uk. Your Flu Friend would ideally have a car, would have to be over 16, and would need some form of identification both for themselves and you. Having relayed all this, I see that a whole hour was devoted to the subject on television, so apologies to those who know all about it already.

The parish council meeting on 7th October would normally be followed only by one in December, but there often seems to be reason to hold one in between. Last year it was "affordable housing" - wonder what happened to that!

P. Crossland (Clerk)

Just before going to print, I was informed that the wastepaper recycling was to be reinstated in the next week of so. Please use this facility rather than your blue bins for paper, as the funds raised are for the benefit of the village. Editor.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Rudston managed to send one hundred and eighteen boxes for last year's appeal, let's see what we can all achieve this year. We will be delivering the leaflets early in October, which explain the items you can include. I do have a few empty boxes, which I would be pleased to cover for you.

Once again, thank you very much for your continued support.
